McCALLUM PIPE CHANTERS

*African Blackwood or Plastic • No carving required • Easy to reed
Threaded reed seat • Comfortable to play • Good volume • Bright and stable*

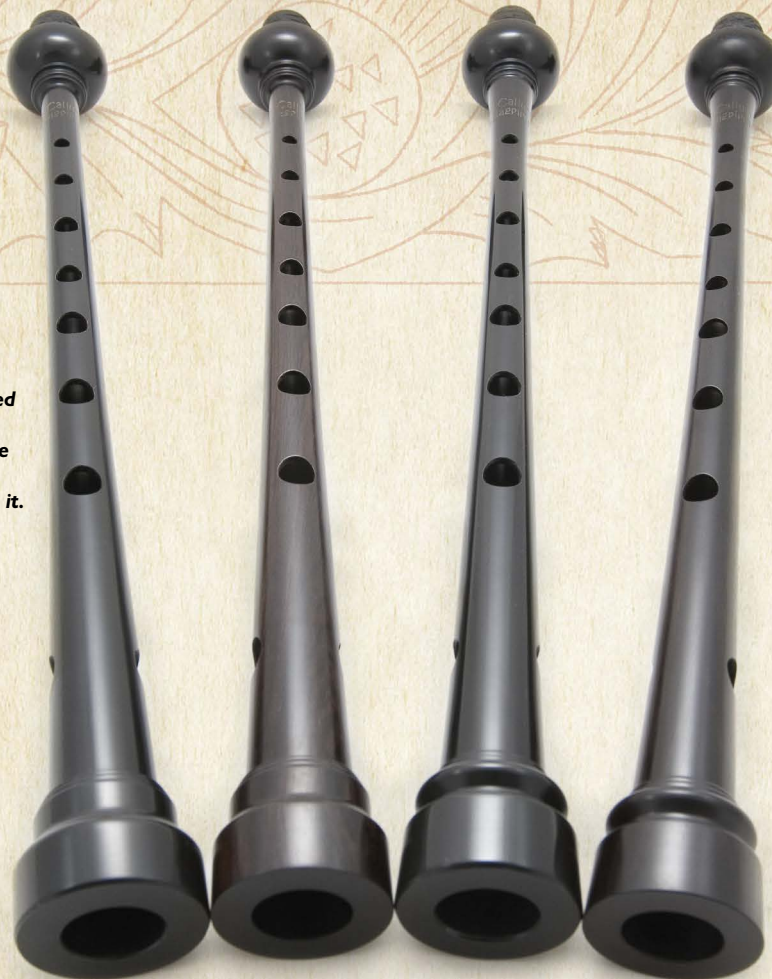

We put a thread on the reed seat of all chanters (except C4) which alleviates the problems of the reed coming loose, especially on the plastic chanter in dry conditions. This locks the reed in place until adjusted by the piper.

The thread means the reed is locked in place – it can't move unless the piper moves it.

It's also a much more accurate way of setting the chanter reed pitch.

You turn the reed clockwise to sink the reed and sharpen it, and the anti-clockwise to raise it and flatten it.

Our standard Pipe Chanter (C1, C2) is played by pipe bands worldwide, including many of the top Grade I bands. In addition, it is also played by many top soloists and has won almost every top piping award.

Our McCallum Solo Chanter (known as M<sup>c</sup>C<sup>2</sup>) was designed exclusively by Willie McCallum and has won almost every top award since 2007. It is played by many bands throughout the world and indeed, won the Grade 2 World Championship in 2008, played by Bagad Cap Caval.

C7 Campbell Tuneable chanter

C7/Bflat Campbell Tuneable chanter in B-flat

Now you can tune your chanter very quickly by simply turning the tuning dial to raise or lower your reed – while you continue to blow your pipes. Based on our Mark III design, with comfortable round holes, this chanter presents a bright sound with brilliant projection and stability.
